From the Desk of Our Associate Pastor ....

Dear Faithful,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! It is a great grace for me to be here at Saint Joseph Catholic Community, to serve you as a priest and care for you as a father. Thank you for the warm welcome I have received from so many, and please pray that the Holy Spirit will guide me, so that together in Christ we can worship the Father in spirit and in truth.

Speaking of truth ... Nowadays people often say that they are spiritual, not religious. What they usually mean is that they are not especially interested in Truth, but in what suits their feelings. They accept nothing externally imposed, either in belief or in practice. They reject the very concept of obedience. As for morality: what they like to do, they consider permissible; what they dislike other people doing, they consider forbidden. They are happy to get along agreeably enough with others, but no strong bonds of communion are formed or even allowed to exist because in their view, each person must be left free to go his own way.

But a great question is put before us in today's Gospel (Matt 16:13-20): "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" Who is Jesus? What is He to me? What difference does He make? With joy and conviction, with worship and ceremony and sacrament, with Simon Peter in the Gospel, we proclaim our faith—the faith of the Church—the faith of her Apostles. "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God!" Yes, Jesus is our Savior, our Lord, our God. In Him, we have the forgiveness of our sins, and adoption into divine sonship, and the promise of eternal life. So we want everyone in the world to accept and embrace this truth about the identity of Jesus, because it's our way towards union with God; towards sharing in God's own life.

Everything around us these days seems to conspire to make us let this decision about the identity of Jesus grow gradually cold, and even wither away. As disciples of Christ, we must acknowledge that He is the single and unique mediator between God and man; that there is no salvation apart from Him; that His demands are sometimes inconvenient, painful, and counter-cultural.

May grace and peace, then, be the fruit of today's Gospel. Through the intercession of St Peter, may we receive an ever more abundant outpouring of God's grace, His mercy, His transforming power. And may we enjoy peace—in spite of whatever turmoil there may be from within or without: peace with God, peace with one another, and with all the Saints.

Yours in Christ,
Fr Patrick McCain
Associate Pastor

Chronic pain makes life incredibly difficult. Whether it's numbness or tingling from neuropathy, the burning sensation of sciatica, or the stiffness and aching in your joints from arthritis, we are here to help.

Our emphasis is in difficult-to-treat conditions and our goal is to get you back to living a life you love with less or no pain.

By blending the time-tested wisdom of acupuncture with modern medical innovations, we pioneer non-pharmaceutical and non-surgical solutions that actually TREAT your symptoms.

"I am so grateful that I came to Patapsco Acupuncture. I was feeling so weak, pushing on, and worried about ending up in a wheelchair. Now, I have hope again. I know healing is a process, but already I am feeling so much better. The staff at Patapsco Acupuncture have been so supportive and I am so glad I found them." -- Beth R.
