From the Desk of Our Associate Pastor

Dear Faithful,

This week (5-11 November) is National Vocations Awareness Week. The US Bishops propose this observance and ask us to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life. They also ask us to invite young men and women to consider these particular paths of discipleship.

By our Baptism, we are called to receive the Gospel as a complete, coherent, comprehensive way of life; we are called to be disciples of the Lord Jesus. And to live as true disciples of Christ, everything about us must be guided by the Gospel: our thoughts, words, deeds, relationships, spending habits, political convictions, leisure activities, lifestyle choices, business decisions—everything. This is our primary vocation: the universal call to holiness. Beyond this universal vocation to holiness, God calls men and women to particular vocations: marriage and parenthood, the diaconate, the priesthood, the consecrated life. Before discerning the vocation to marriage, men and women owe it to themselves and to the Church to discern whether God is calling them to a celibate vocation.

Some men (like me) are called to ministry, but not to religious life. Some are called to ministry in a diocese, as deacons or priests. Jesus Himself always remains our Shepherd, and He always takes personal care of each of us. But He mediates to us His saving work—including His ministry of Shepherd—through efficacious signs. So He shepherds us through earthly shepherds—our bishops and priests.

We need these pastors: living human beings who have the authority to speak and act in Christ's name. We need them to preach His word; to celebrate and administer the Sacraments; to teach in His name; to visit the sick, bring back the lapsed, and give relief to the poor. Without that activity, Christianity would be reduced to an idea, rather than what it must be: a living reality.

So don't be afraid to recommend to young men the priesthood and the diaconate. An outside word can clarify an inner longing. God continues to call men and is counting on their generosity. We should be encouraged to see more seminarians, more ordinations. It's an assurance that the Lord, here and now, in Maryland in 2023, has not forgotten us. He's at work among us. He still holds us in His care and is bothered about us and His Church in this place. He is still calling and sending and pouring out

His Holy Spirit to equip His disciples for service. He is our Shepherd, and He is with us.

Peace and blessings,
Fr Patrick McCain

Giving Thanks By Giving Back

Dear SJCC Family,

Greetings in the abundant love and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ! As we enter into a new season of stewardship at our parish community, I write to you with great anticipation and excitement for the journey ahead. It is my pleasure to announce that during Mass, the weekend of November 11-12th, we will have the privilege of hearing a heartfelt personal testimonial from a couple of our dedicated parishioners.

In this testimonial, we will witness firsthand the transformative power of faith, service, stewardship, and mission. Our fellow parishioner's personal journey serves as a reminder of the profound impact these pillars of evangelization can have on our lives and the lives of others. It is my hope that the testimonial you will hear will inspire and encourage each one of us to deepen our commitment to and embrace our role as active participants in our community's journey of faith.

At the core of our community, we are united in faith, service, stewardship, and mission.

I warmly invite you to join us next weekend as we come together in worship and celebration as a community united to build a brighter future for ourselves and those we serve.

Gracious God, We humbly gather as a community united in faith, service, stewardship, and mission. May our hearts overflow with generosity, as we share our blessings and talents to the betterment of others. Help us embrace our role as faithful stewards, using our resources wisely and selflessly. Guide us in our daily actions to embody love and compassion, strengthening the bonds that connect us all in Your grace. Amen.

Yours in Christ,

Father John Worgul
 Pastor

PATAPSCO ACUPUNCTURE
& Integrative Medicine

Chronic pain makes life incredibly difficult. Whether it's numbness or tingling from neuropathy, the burning sensation of sciatica, or the stiffness and aching in your joints from arthritis, we are here to help.

Our emphasis is in difficult-to-treat conditions and our goal is to get you back to living a life you love with less or no pain.

By blending the time-tested wisdom of acupuncture with modern medical innovations, we pioneer non-pharmaceutical and non-surgical solutions that actually TREAT your symptoms.

"I am so grateful that I came to Patapsco Acupuncture. I was feeling so weak, pushing on, and worried about ending up in a wheelchair. Now, I have hope again. I know healing is a process, but already I am feeling so much better. The staff at Patapsco Acupuncture have been so supportive and I am so glad I found them." -- Beth R.
