From the Desk of Our Pastor

The Importance of Being Thankful

What in this world are we to be thankful for? The words of the Salve Regina ring in my ears; “we poor banished children of Eve,” and before my eyes, the doleful image of Adam and Eve driven from original happiness painted on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel. Indeed, how difficult it is for a “thank you” to rise up from our hearts and make it audibly all the way through the larynx. Many in our culture have abandoned God because they do not like the way He does things, and by abandoning Him, they have abandoned all ultimate hope and reason to be thankful.

Even for us Catholics, it is difficult to clearly articulate a heartfelt “thank you” to God or those around us. This is so because we can so easily slip into the muck of pride and fear from which spring up anger, sullenness, and even mockery. In pride, we feel like we deserve better than what we are getting in life, and presume on God and others. Fear of loss of what we have in this temporal world paralyzes us to the point where we cannot appreciate what we have and be thankful.

If we stand back and consider how rich it is to feel the breeze on one’s face, to gaze upon the sunshine beaming through a window across a silent room, to taste the simplest foods when hungry, like a plain piece of bread or fruit, to sit back and hear the steady fall of rain in the spring or summer, observe the vast starry night, and many other things that we all, whether rich or poor, protected or abused, healthy or ill, can experience, we should all be filled with awe. Indeed, it is often the poor who enjoy this myriad of wonders that are universally experienced and are therefore more thankful.

It is not too much to say that all it takes to warm God’s heart toward anyone, even a great sinner, is a simple heartfelt “thank you.” Consider how Jesus warmed up to the only leper of the ten healed who came back to him with gratitude. Indeed, “thank you” is a fundamental salvation word that lifts the soul above this transient world to immortality. In fact, our most holy salvation feast is specifically called “Eucharist,” that is, “thanksgiving.” It might do us all well to sit around our Thanksgiving table this week and reflect on all the good things we daily experience; it will warm your hearts as well as God’s.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

SHARE YOUR TIME AND TALENTS

The SJCC Saint Vincent de Paul Outreach would like to thank our parishioners for their unselfish generosity in your commitment in supporting those less fortunate and in need in Carroll County. Because of you, many neighbors avoided becoming homeless with pledges towards rent, electric and gas, water bills, food, and so much more when they incurred a setback or hardship over the past months and years. Due to your support and kindness, a disabled child and his family were able to stay out of a shelter this Thanksgiving as they waited for their apartment to become available.

Our outreach is a small team of parishioners that follow Christ through service to those in need to show compassion, hope and charity in our commitment through person-to-person contact. We schedule appointments weekly on Tuesday mornings and Thursday afternoons, just a two hour commitment of time. We invite you to join us and become a Vincentian member. If you are interested in learning more about our ministry, please do not hesitate to contact the church office. It is because of you that we are able to give hope, inspire change, and provide an opportunity in our fight against poverty. Thank you.

SJCC needs additional Money Counting team members. Members are responsible for sorting, grouping, and counting collections from Sunday Masses, the Poor Box and other monies received through the Parish Office during the week. Ensuring the integrity of the deposit made to the bank is vital.

Attention to detail, accuracy, and confidentiality are required. There are 4 rotating teams, so the time commitment is 12-13 times per year for approximately 2 hours each time.

If you are interested in becoming a Money Counting Team Member, please contact Lauren Glass at glassl@saintjoseph.cc or 443-920-9123.

PATAPSCO ACUPUNCTURE
 & Integrative Medicine

Chronic pain makes life incredibly difficult. Whether it's numbness or tingling from neuropathy, the burning sensation of sciatica, or the stiffness and aching in your joints from arthritis, we are here to help.

Our emphasis is in difficult-to-treat conditions and our goal is to get you back to living a life you love with less or no pain.

By blending the time-tested wisdom of acupuncture with modern medical innovations, we pioneer non-pharmaceutical and non-surgical solutions that actually TREAT your symptoms.

"I am so grateful that I came to Patapsco Acupuncture. I was feeling so weak, pushing on, and worried about ending up in a wheelchair. Now, I have hope again. I know healing is a process, but already I am feeling so much better. The staff at Patapsco Acupuncture have been so supportive and I am so glad I found them." -- Beth R.
