From the Desk of Our Pastor

The Mass: Entering the Presence of the King

This week we focus on how we approach the Mass. We are entering into the presence of Christ, the King of the Universe, and uniting ourselves with His sacrifice. This is difficult for us in our casual democratic mentality; we have no experience entering the presence of someone who has absolute power over us and all we possess. Since we have lost all sense of this, we must train ourselves, body and soul, to approach Jesus in His sublime mystery and holiness.

Therefore, we must always keep in mind the Church's famous dictum: the way we pray (lex orandi) determines the way we believe (lex credendi) and, ultimately, the way we live (lex vivendi). We need to present ourselves body, soul, and spirit before our King in the right posture and the right attitude even if we do not feel like it, especially when we do not feel like it. All the beauty of the sanctuary, with its sacred furniture, ornaments, and vestments, helps to stimulate our minds and imaginations of the reality that we enter. We cannot be casual. Praying with such reverence will grow our awareness and belief of who God really is.

So we enter quietly with reverence, crossing ourselves with holy water and genuflecting (bowing deeply if we cannot genuflect) before the altar and the tabernacle, and prepare our hearts in prayer. The Mass begins with a chanted "preface" of Scripture by the cantor to orient our hearts prayerfully for worship. Then we join in singing the processional hymn. This procession, from ancient times, has been a way to gather the whole community and focus our attention on the altar and lectern, the center of our communal action. It is part of our "work of the people" to sing this hymn. Singing is an offering to God and to our neighbors, no matter what kind of voice you have!

After the greeting, the Priest invites us to repent for the sins we have committed, followed by a Kyrie (Gk. "Lord" or "Christ" have mercy). (Note: this Penitential Act does not replace the sacrament of penance!) We then sing together the Gloria, joining ourselves with the universal Church, past and present, and the choir of angels in joyful praise. This is followed by the opening "collect," a prayer by the priest that "collects" the silent prayer of all the faithful together with a unified heart. And thus, our rich ritual, our drama of worship, has begun!

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

SJCC needs additional Money Counting team members. Members are responsible for sorting, grouping, and counting collections from Sunday Masses, the Poor Box and other monies received through the Parish Office during the week. Ensuring the integrity of the deposit made to the bank is vital. Attention to detail, accuracy, and confidentiality are required. There are 4 rotating teams, so the time commitment is 12-13 times per year for approximately 2 hours each time.

If you are interested in becoming a Money Counting Team Member, please contact Lauren Glass at glassl@saintjoseph.cc or 443-920-9123.

From the end of January to the end of April, Stephen Ministry Leaders at Saint Joseph Catholic Community and Wesley Freedom United Methodist Church are training a new group of five individuals from SJCC and five from WFUMC to be Stephen Ministers. Stephen Minister training is a 50-hour, Christ-centered experience that equips participants with essential caring and relating skills to enable them to effectively care for and walk with those going through difficult times in life. Stephen Ministers are trained to provide a high level of emotional and spiritual support to those experiencing life crises, extending the reach of SJCC care to people who are hurting.
