Fourth Sunday of Easter | Good Shepherd Sunday

April 20-21, 2024

I am the good shepherd,
and I know mine and mine know me,
just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep.

From the Desk of Our Pastor ....

Good Shepherd Sunday 2024

I think we need to be honest and free ourselves from any illusions we might have as Americans. What we believe as Catholics, if we fully embrace the teachings of the Church, is more or less contrary to our society no matter what political party one follows. We participate in a family where we find ourselves related to God the Father through His Son, our Brother, Jesus Christ, and empowered and emboldened by His Holy Spirit. It is a family affair with Holy Mary, Mother of God and of the Church, and St. Joseph her most chaste spouse, who both radically said “yes” to God, and we live and exist in that “yes.” In contrast, our culture has long since responded to Christ with an unambiguous “no.”

So it is in our Epistle reading from the Apostle John this week; our Father loves us so much that we may be called the children of God. The world (our present American culture), does not know us because it does not know Him. Jesus could just as easily be crucified in the America that is evolving as in Rome. There is no longer the so-called “American Dream” for us Catholics. All we can expect is persecution. Our hope is in the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ when we shall be like Him, “for we shall see Him as He is.”

Jesus is our Brother, but He is also our Good Shepherd. Our government is the “hired man” who, when he sees the wolf coming, flees. Indeed, one wonders if the Government itself is the wolf. It is no longer safe for anyone, whether the unborn, the terminally ill, or the aged. No longer is it safe for families trying to raise their kids in a chaste environment without explicit sexual situations and gender confusion. In this jungle there is only one safe place, and that is in the Catholic Church, the fold of our Good Shepherd, with her teachings and sacramental life. That is exactly why our culture is actively trying to squeeze us out of existence; we are the only thing standing between them and their perverse agenda inspired by that ancient wolf, Satan himself.

Having said all this, we do not hate the people of our culture but love them like Jesus did. We are not at all intimidated, nor do we live with a “fortress mentality.” We freely encourage all to come to Jesus, the Good Shepherd, and to His fold, the Church. Here we gift ourselves to God, one another, and to all the precious souls who are vulnerable to the wolves out there.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Stephen Ministry

Please pray for our parishioners who have been training to be Stephen Ministers. Since the end of January they have been undergoing training, which will end in April, Stephen Ministry Leaders at Saint Joseph Catholic Community and Wesley Freedom United Methodist Church are training a new group of five individuals from SJCC and five from WFUMC to be Stephen Ministers. Stephen Minister training is a 50-hour, Christ-centered experience that equips participants with essential caring and relating skills to enable them to effectively care for and walk with those going through difficult times in life.

Stephen Ministers are trained to provide a high level of emotional and spiritual support to those experiencing life crises, extending the reach of SJCC care to people who are hurting.
