From the Desk of Our Pastor ....

Dear Friends in Christ,

As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love.

Opening His heart to His intimate friends, Jesus speaks about love. The love He speaks of isn't trivial or sentimental. It's too big for us. This love is utterly beyond our comprehension, although it's precisely what we're called to live by. Its source is the love by which the eternal Father loves the eternal Son. He loves the Son so much that He gives Him everything He is. But this love entered another mode when the eternal Son became Man.

Jesus speaks of His Father's love for Him because, as Man, Jesus perfectly abides in His Father's love and perfectly fulfills His commandments. Meaning: Jesus lives permanently in the presence of His Father, loving and worshipping Him without the least sinful thought or action ever interrupting their communion. Jesus obediently and perfectly fulfills His mission—to bring us into the circle of Trinitarian love. And He pours out His love on us not only divine but humanly; so much so that He lays down His life, pours out His blood for us: so that we might become, with Him, children of God.

Remain in my love. How?! We do this in the first place by living in faith and becoming free from sin, which could be defined as non-love. If we would remain in Christ's love, we must—by effort and perseverance—put aside all our spiteful, angry, selfish, proud, lustful, grasping, vain thoughts and tendencies. We must cultivate humility and purity of heart. And finally, we have to bear fruit.

And what is the fruit of love? More love. We bear fruit for God when we respond to His love by loving Him and one another; when remaining in that love, we live as the children of God. Remaining in Christ's love means never ceasing from prayer, desire, adoration, thanksgiving, or intercession. Remaining in His love means standing ready to lay down our lives for Him and our brethren.

The love of Christ is a serious thing. It demands everything, and costs us everything. At the Last Supper, along with His new commandment of love, Jesus gave us the Sacrament of love—the Holy Eucharist. In the holy Sacrament of the Altar, we directly receive the love Jesus has for us, and also the grace we need to be able to pass that love to one another.

Love and prayers,
Fr Patrick

Stephen Ministry

During the 10:45 Mass on Sunday, May 19th, our congregation will commission five new Stephen Ministers. These dedicated people have been training with four others from Wesley Freedom UMC since the end of January and will complete training for this caring ministry on April 27. They are well prepared to provide emotional and spiritual support for people in and around Saint Joseph Catholic Community who are going through many kinds of difficulties in their lives.

Chronic pain makes life incredibly difficult. Whether it's numbness or tingling from neuropathy, the burning sensation of sciatica, or the stiffness and aching in your joints from arthritis, we are here to help.

Our emphasis is in difficult-to-treat conditions and our goal is to get you back to living a life you love with less or no pain.

By blending the time-tested wisdom of acupuncture with modern medical innovations, we pioneer non-pharmaceutical and non-surgical solutions that actually TREAT your symptoms.

"I am so grateful that I came to Patapsco Acupuncture. I was feeling so weak, pushing on, and worried about ending up in a wheelchair. Now, I have hope again. I know healing is a process, but already I am feeling so much better. The staff at Patapsco Acupuncture have been so supportive and I am so glad I found them." -- Beth R.
