From the Desk of Our Pastor ....

Cleaning House

Back in the day, people would talk about doing a thorough “spring cleaning” after winter. Our readings, it seems to me, follow this imagery of house cleaning. We have in Genesis 3 a description of the moment when God confronts Adam and Eve with their disobedience. They stand before Him naked and exposed; sin had infested their body and soul, and they are now dead creatures, fallen from their original glory. They are shamed with moral failure, and their environment is menacing and unfriendly. Creation has become a haunted house!

In our Gospel reading, we find Jesus cleaning the house by driving the demons out. Because everyone was used to their house being haunted, they were confused, even offended. Even Jesus’ relatives were uneasy, suggesting He was out of His mind. Because the religious leaders wanted to discredit His authority, they made the ridiculous claim that He Himself was possessed by Beelzebul and by this prince of devils, was casting out the demons. Jesus simply and logically tells them that Satan doesn’t clean the house and that it doesn’t make sense for him to cast himself out. In fact, Jesus is the One who enters the house, binds the “strong man,” and plunders the house, i.e., cleans the house.

What does this house cleaning look like for us? St. Paul tells us in the Epistle reading. Jesus defeated Satan by being sinless and His resurrection. When we bond ourselves to Jesus by faith, all the graces lost at the fall, and even more, are given back to us in abundance. So even when we live out this mortal life and our bodies age and fail, we know and feel our inner selves being renewed day by day, or with our analogy, our “house” is being cleaned from within. Even our afflictions produce in us a “weight of glory” beyond all comparison of earthly, transient things.

“Glory” is the keyword here. The Hebrew word for “glory” is “heavy” or “substantial,” especially in comparison to the wispieness and ghost-like things of this haunted, fallen world. No doubt this is behind St. Paul’s phrase “weight of glory,” which will show itself in our new “building,” or “house,” not built with human hands, resplendent with light, free of all the ghosts, and no longer naked and exposed to sin and death. Next time you clean your house, think about these things!

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

POSITION AVAILABLE

SJCC is hiring an Assistant for Liturgy and Music. This will be a part-time (18 hr/wk.) non-exempt, non-benefit position. Hours are flexible and to be determined with the Director of Music and Liturgy. Main job responsibilities include providing clerical and administrative assistance and serving as an accompanist for masses, rehearsals, and other choral programs. Candidates should be familiar with the liturgical music tradition of the Catholic Church, be able to read music, and play piano. Solid organizational skills and the ability to work independently are also necessary.

Contact Lauren Glass at business@saintjoseph.cc for a job application and complete job description.

Protect Women: Vote No

A message from the Catholic Bishops of Maryland | 2024

This November voters across the country will cast their ballots in national and local elections. Maryland is one of several states that will ask voters to enshrine abortion into their state constitution.

This is an important time for us to reiterate our commitment to the protection of all human life. We oppose the "Right to Reproductive Freedom Amendment" as it contradicts the fundamental principles of respect for human dignity and the inherent right to life.

Our opposition to this initiative is rooted in our unwavering concern for the well-being of women and children. Abortion not only ends the life of an innocent child but also poses significant risks to the physical, emotional and spiritual health of women.

PERPETUATES THROWAWAY CULTURE

Enshrining abortion into Maryland's constitution would further perpetuate a "throwaway" culture that devalues human life and fails to provide adequate support and alternatives for women facing difficult decisions regarding their pregnancies.

Pope Francis consistently reminds us that "...people are never to be thrown out. The disadvantaged cannot be thrown away. Every person is a sacred and unique gift, no matter what their age or condition is. Let us always respect and promote life! Let us not throw life away."

DIVERTS RESOURCES FROM WOMEN'S WELL-BEING

Enshrining abortion in the constitution would divert attention and resources away from broader efforts to promote women's well-being and address the root causes of abortion. Instead of a sole focus on access to abortion, it is necessary to advocate for comprehensive solutions that provide women with access to healthcare, resources for families, and education and job opportunities.

We must foster a culture of life where every person is valued and supported, and where women facing difficult decisions regarding pregnancy and parenthood feel respected and empowered.

RISKS HEALTHCARE WORKER RIGHTS

By enshrining abortion in the constitution, we risk undermining existing protections for religious freedom, conscience rights, and the rights of healthcare providers to practice according to their beliefs.

LIMITS ABILITY TO RESPOND TO NEEDS

A constitutional amendment severely limits legislative flexibility and prevents elected officials from enacting laws that respond to changing circumstances or new evidence related to abortion policy and the protection of women.

The unfortunate reality is that nothing regarding abortion in Maryland would change if this amendment were defeated. Sadly, Maryland has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the country, allowing for abortion at any stage of pregnancy, including right up to the moment of birth.

REJECT BALLOT INITIATIVE

We stand in solidarity with women and children, and we reject the notion that abortion is a solution to the challenges faced by women in crisis situations. It is essential that we pursue solutions that include compassionate support, resources, and alternatives to abortion for women facing difficult circumstances.

We urge voters to reject this ballot initiative and stand with us in upholding the sanctity of all human life, safeguarding conscience rights, and standing in solidarity with women and children in need. Together, let us work towards building a culture of life in which every person is valued, cherished and protected.
