Justice, Peace, and Compassion

These three words have been politicized in our modern Western culture and have become mere slogans since the French Revolution used by social engineers to set up utopian societies through human effort and design. This is often done in direct conflict with the Church, but sometimes draws inspiration from Scripture, creating a “social Gospel,” or “liberation theology,” that defies the Church’s teachings and with humanism. These parties, factions, and governments, after decades of experimentation and millions of lives lost, have failed to deliver on justice, peace, and compassion because they are not firmly anchored in Christ.

In our Jeremiah reading, we see the prophet condemning the evil shepherds of his day, that is, the powerful elite, who seek their own gain, fleece the flock, and scatter the sheep defenseless in the wild. He foresees a time when the Messianic Shepherd-King will rule in justice. His name will be called “Lord of Justice,” who we know as Jesus Christ.” He is so called because He, and He alone, has dealt with the main thing that separates humanity from justice, sin. Sin, by definition, is “injustice.” Jesus makes for us a pathway to justice by the forgiveness of sins, both our sins and within us, in turn, the forgiveness of others. The foundation of justice in God’s kingdom is forgiveness.

Jesus is our Lord of Justice, but He “is our peace.” Again, sin is the fundamental problem of our humanity. In our Ephesians reading, Jesus “broke down the dividing wall of enmity through His flesh.” In and of ourselves, all we do is fight, and the naïve hope that humanity can, by its political ideologies, bring peace is constantly shattered by the wars and genocides of our present times. When we respond to Christ and His love for us, we become peacemakers who “shall be called sons of God.”

Finally, when Jesus saw the crowds following Him, like sheep without a shepherd, his “belly opened up” (lit. Gk. meaning) for them. This visceral and emotional reaction happened often with Jesus and was striking to the disciples, who were yet unable to feel like Jesus did. The deeper we fall in love with Jesus, the more naturally we will emote like He did for our fellow humanity and do something about it.

The beauty of our call is that we can accomplish what the world’s sociologists and politicians cannot: bringing justice, peace, and compassion to all those around us as individuals and as a church. Our secret is our union with Christ.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Position Available: Administrative Assistant to Youth and Young Adult Ministry

This position is a part-time (12 hr./week), non-exempt, non-benefit position. It provides administrative assistance and support of the parish's efforts in ministry to young people and their families ranging from 6th through 12th grades and young adults (ages 18-35). Main job responsibilities include providing clerical and administrative support for the Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry, maintaining sacramental records for Confirmation, assisting with Child & Youth Protection requirements for volunteers, and communicating information for scheduled events.

This role requires exceptional organizational skills, effective communication skills, and the ability to learn and use relevant parish databases.

Contact business@saintjoseph.cc for full job description and employee application.

PATAPSCO ACUPUNCTURE
 & Integrative Medicine

Chronic pain makes life incredibly difficult. Whether it's numbness or tingling from neuropathy, the burning sensation of sciatica, or the stiffness and aching in your joints from arthritis, we are here to help.

Our emphasis is in difficult-to-treat conditions and our goal is to get you back to living a life you love with less or no pain.

By blending the time-tested wisdom of acupuncture with modern medical innovations, we pioneer non-pharmaceutical and non-surgical solutions that actually TREAT your symptoms.

"I am so grateful that I came to Patapsco Acupuncture. I was feeling so weak, pushing on, and worried about ending up in a wheelchair. Now, I have hope again. I know healing is a process, but already I am feeling so much better. The staff at Patapsco Acupuncture have been so supportive and I am so glad I found them." -- Beth R.
