The Challenge

We now conclude the great Bread of Life discourse in John chapter 6. The way I understand its structure is that Jesus is offering us a two-course meal. The first course is given to us in 6:25-51. Behind this discourse section is God's provision of manna through Moses. Though it is not quoted, Moses' statement in Deut. 8:4 in the background, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God." The Evangelist John established Jesus as that Word in chapter one. Those who are "God-taught" and "learn from the Father" (v.45) feast on Jesus as the Incarnate Word as taught in Scripture. We must all develop an appetite for God's Word. This first course reminds us of the first part of our Mass, the Liturgy of the Word.

The second course, very shocking indeed, is the offering of His very physical flesh and blood in the Eucharistic feast in vv. 51-59. As we said last week, this interpretation is unavoidable, and if we have a problem with it is because 1) we are not doing the "work of God," which is to believe what Jesus is clearly saying (v. 29), and are too proud to believe that Jesus could present Himself so humbly in what looks like a plain piece of bread, and a chalice of what looks like simple wine. We must develop an appetite for the Eucharist.

As shocking as this is, it all becomes clear when we see it in the big picture of Scripture. Jesus is the fulfillment of the whole sacrificial system in the old covenant. In that covenant, the sacrifice must be devoured by God through the sacred fire, the priests, and in the Peace Offering and the Passover Lamb, by the people. Once atonement for sin is made, the sacrifice must be devoured to consummate the relationship with God. What is new is the ingestion of blood; it was forbidden under the old covenant because the life of the animal was "in the blood," and it was unholy to mix human life with animal life. But here we are invited to take in the very life of God Incarnate for eternal life.

We see this was too much for many of Jesus' disciples, for they turned away. Jesus' challenge to Peter is the challenge of all the ages: "Will you also go away?" Peter's humble answer is superb: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, and we have believed" (v. 68).

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Dear Parents,

We are so glad that our population of young parents is growing! We love our children and desire to do everything we can for them and for you. We want you to know that if they become a little bit too rambunctious in Mass, that we have a delightful area down the steps from the narthex with a monitor so you can watch the Mass until they settle down.

The Year of Formation 2024 - 2025

Did you know there are six components of Catholic formation: (1) to promote knowledge of the faith, (2) to promote knowledge of the meaning of the liturgy and the sacraments, (3) to promote moral formation in Jesus Christ, (4) to teach us how to pray, (5) to prepare one to live in community, by participating actively in the life of the Church, and (6) to promote a missionary spirit that is outward looking to society. These components are represented in our SJCC vision statement: “Embracing Christ’s Life & Reflecting His Love.” How are you being formed? How can SJCC accompany you in the Year of Formation?

Protect Women: Vote No

A message from the Catholic Bishops of Maryland | 2024

This November voters across the country will cast their ballots in national and local elections. Maryland is one of several states that will ask voters to enshrine abortion into their state constitution.

This is an important time for us to reiterate our commitment to the protection of all human life. We oppose the "Right to Reproductive Freedom Amendment" as it contradicts the fundamental principles of respect for human dignity and the inherent right to life.

Our opposition to this initiative is rooted in our unwavering concern for the well-being of women and children. Abortion not only ends the life of an innocent child but also poses significant risks to the physical, emotional and spiritual health of women.

PERPETUATES THROWAWAY CULTURE

Enshrining abortion into Maryland's constitution would further perpetuate a "throwaway" culture that devalues human life and fails to provide adequate support and alternatives for women facing difficult decisions regarding their pregnancies.

Pope Francis consistently reminds us that "...people are never to be thrown out. The disadvantaged cannot be thrown away. Every person is a sacred and unique gift, no matter what their age or condition is. Let us always respect and promote life! Let us not throw life away."

DIVERTS RESOURCES FROM WOMEN'S WELL-BEING

Enshrining abortion in the constitution would divert attention and resources away from broader efforts to promote women's well-being and address the root causes of abortion. Instead of a sole focus on access to abortion, it is necessary to advocate for comprehensive solutions that provide women with access to healthcare, resources for families, and education and job opportunities.

We must foster a culture of life where every person is valued and supported, and where women facing difficult decisions regarding pregnancy and parenthood feel respected and empowered.

“Our opposition to this initiative is rooted in our unwavering concern for the well-being of women and children.”

RISKS HEALTHCARE WORKER RIGHTS

By enshrining abortion in the constitution, we risk undermining existing protections for religious freedom, conscience rights, and the rights of healthcare providers to practice according to their beliefs.

LIMITS ABILITY TO RESPOND TO NEEDS

A constitutional amendment severely limits legislative flexibility and prevents elected officials from enacting laws that respond to changing circumstances or new evidence related to abortion policy and the protection of women.

The unfortunate reality is that nothing regarding abortion in Maryland would change if this amendment were defeated. Sadly, Maryland has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the country, allowing for abortion at any stage of pregnancy, including right up to the moment of birth.

REJECT BALLOT INITIATIVE

We stand in solidarity with women and children, and we reject the notion that abortion is a solution to the challenges faced by women in crisis situations. It is essential that we pursue solutions that include compassionate support, resources, and alternatives to abortion for women facing difficult circumstances.

We urge voters to reject this ballot initiative and stand with us in upholding the sanctity of all human life, safeguarding conscience rights, and standing in solidarity with women and children in need. Together, let us work towards building a culture of life in which every person is valued, cherished and protected.
