From the Desk of Our Pastor ....

On Being Deaf and Mute

When we step back and think about it, those of us who are blessed with the sense of hearing take in a lot of “data” through our ears each day of our lives. The sheer volume of it is staggering. Moreover, we cannot help but put filters on to manage everything. We tend to hear what we want to hear and judge what we hear according to the condition of our hearts. The same goes for our vision. From there, our mouths take over, freely dispensing our opinions to everyone around us. But do we speak the truth as Jesus did?

In our beautiful Isaiah prophecy for this week, we see that the Messiah will bring healing: sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, life to lame limbs, and speech to the mute. This is fulfilled in our Gospel reading in Mark. What is remarkable are the contortions Jesus goes through to heal this man. First, he takes him aside away from the crowd, then sticks His fingers in his ears, spits on His fingers, and touches the man’s tongue with His saliva; he looks to heaven and groans, and finally says “ephaphtha” which means “be open” in Aramaic.

It is clear that Jesus did not have to go through all these contortions to heal this man; most everywhere else Jesus simply heals by mere touch or word, sometimes not even that. We find our explanation if we look at the context of this healing. Jesus is healing and teaching, but the religious elite, and even His own disciples, listen, but really do not hear Him. They have eyes but cannot see, ears but cannot hear, and therefore cannot speak the truth with authority. Through all these contortions, Jesus is demonstrating to all of us just how hard it is to get us to see, hear, and speak. We are this deaf-mute man!

This “year of formation” is geared to get us to see, hear, and speak like Jesus would want us to. One of our opportunities is our “Walk with One” initiative. Jesus wants to speak into our ears, “be open,” and free our mouths to speak to a friend about coming to Mass. I have met many people who no longer come to Mass since COVID. We all know such persons, and we know that all that is needed for many is some encouragement from a friend who cares. Please pray about your involvement; it is such a glorious ministry. See our “Walk with One” on our website for more information.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

The Year of Formation 2024 - 2025

Did you know there are six components of Catholic formation: (1) to promote knowledge of the faith, (2) to promote knowledge of the meaning of the liturgy and the sacraments, (3) to promote moral formation in Jesus Christ, (4) to teach us how to pray, (5) to prepare one to live in community, by participating actively in the life of the Church, and (6) to promote a missionary spirit that is outward looking to society. These components are represented in our SJCC vision statement: “Embracing Christ’s Life & Reflecting His Love.” How are you being formed? How can SJCC accompany you in the Year of Formation?

Mission

Catholics across the U.S. are saying “yes” to a special form of heart-to-heart accompaniment called the Walk With One initiative.

Through Walk with One, we hope to develop a Eucharistic culture within our community, where we each see ourselves being taken by the Holy Spirit, broken, and poured out to meet the needs of another person and to bring them into the fullness of life in Christ.

Get Started

September - Identify someone in a spirit of humility.

During the month of September, prayerfully begin to discern who God is calling you to accompany.

Before you begin the process of inviting someone into a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church, spend time in prayer, inviting the Holy Spirit to guide you in this process. Ask the Holy Spirit to show you the person that He wants you to accompany. Consider going to Eucharistic adoration or committing to a period of silent prayer in church to allow the Holy Spirit to speak to you.

Overview

Step 1 - Identify

- Pray to discern the name of someone the Holy Spirit wants you to walk with. Ask God who He wants you to accompany on their journey home to the Church.

Step 2 - Intercede

- Pray for the person. Ask God to remove whatever obstacles are making it difficult for this person to draw closer to Christ and His Church.

Step 3 - Connect

- Look for ways to build a deeper relationship with this person. Listen deeply for promptings from the Holy Spirit as you get to know your friend's joys and struggles.

Step 4 - Invite

- When the time is right, invite your friend to take a concrete next step in fostering a personal relationship with Jesus and the Church. This might mean joining you for a small group, adoration, or Mass on Sunday.
