From the Desk of Our Pastor ....

Our Separated Brethren

Our readings for this Sunday join together two seemingly obscure and marginal readings that are, in fact, of major importance. They address the critical problem of disunity in the Church. As we know unity is at the very heart of our Catholic worship, and the uncomfortable fact that there are those who separate themselves from us is a reality we must deal with.

The first is found in Numbers 11 where God instructed Moses to gather 70 elders together at the tent of meeting located outside the camp. The reason for this is that God desired to give a portion of Moses' spirit that "was upon him" to the 70 so they could bear part of the burden of governing the people. For some reason Eldad and Medab, two of the 70, did not go out with the others but remained in the camp. Why? Did they sleep in that day? Perhaps they had a bad attitude? Were they intentionally rebellious? We will never know.

What is surprising is that God poured His spirit on these two in spite of the fact that they were in the wrong place, and not obeying God's instructions. Joshua, Moses' "bulldog" who felt obligated that things go according to the rules, brings the issue to Moses. Moses responds with a one-liner of incredible ecclesial significance, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all of the Lord's people were prophets, that the Lord would put His spirit upon them!" This yearning becomes the inspiration of the famous Joel prophecy (Joel 2:28f.) leading to Pentecost.

Something similar happens in our Gospel reading. Someone was caught casting out demons in Jesus' name who wasn't "part of us," that is, the apostolic band (something the disciples themselves were not able to do just before this episode in the same chapter). John and the disciples tried to prevent him, and protested to Jesus, who responds "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us."

The point is that God's Spirit is free to do whatever He wants outside of the very structures that God sets up. The ecclesial structures, the tradition, the teachings, the sacraments, are all foundational and important, but there will always be those, which the Church calls "separated brethren," who are on the outside. We must work for unity on one hand, but be humble on the other, knowing that God always has the bigger picture in mind and calls whomever He wishes to do His will.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Protect Women: Vote No

A message from the Catholic Bishops of Maryland | 2024

This November voters across the country will cast their ballots in national and local elections. Maryland is one of several states that will ask voters to enshrine abortion into their state constitution.

This is an important time for us to reiterate our commitment to the protection of all human life. We oppose the "Right to Reproductive Freedom Amendment" as it contradicts the fundamental principles of respect for human dignity and the inherent right to life.

Our opposition to this initiative is rooted in our unwavering concern for the well-being of women and children. Abortion not only ends the life of an innocent child but also poses significant risks to the physical, emotional and spiritual health of women.

PERPETUATES THROWAWAY CULTURE

Enshrining abortion into Maryland's constitution would further perpetuate a "throwaway" culture that devalues human life and fails to provide adequate support and alternatives for women facing difficult decisions regarding their pregnancies.

Pope Francis consistently reminds us that "...people are never to be thrown out. The disadvantaged cannot be thrown away. Every person is a sacred and unique gift, no matter what their age or condition is. Let us always respect and promote life! Let us not throw life away."

DIVERTS RESOURCES FROM WOMEN'S WELL-BEING

Enshrining abortion in the constitution would divert attention and resources away from broader efforts to promote women's well-being and address the root causes of abortion. Instead of a sole focus on access to abortion, it is necessary to advocate for comprehensive solutions that provide women with access to healthcare, resources for families, and education and job opportunities.

We must foster a culture of life where every person is valued and supported, and where women facing difficult decisions regarding pregnancy and parenthood feel respected and empowered.

RISKS HEALTHCARE WORKER RIGHTS

By enshrining abortion in the constitution, we risk undermining existing protections for religious freedom, conscience rights, and the rights of healthcare providers to practice according to their beliefs.

LIMITS ABILITY TO RESPOND TO NEEDS

A constitutional amendment severely limits legislative flexibility and prevents elected officials from enacting laws that respond to changing circumstances or new evidence related to abortion policy and the protection of women.

The unfortunate reality is that nothing regarding abortion in Maryland would change if this amendment were defeated. Sadly, Maryland has some of the most permissive abortion laws in the country, allowing for abortion at any stage of pregnancy, including right up to the moment of birth.

REJECT BALLOT INITIATIVE

We stand in solidarity with women and children, and we reject the notion that abortion is a solution to the challenges faced by women in crisis situations. It is essential that we pursue solutions that include compassionate support, resources, and alternatives to abortion for women facing difficult circumstances.

We urge voters to reject this ballot initiative and stand with us in upholding the sanctity of all human life, safeguarding conscience rights, and standing in solidarity with women and children in need. Together, let us work towards building a culture of life in which every person is valued, cherished and protected.
