From the Desk of Our Associate Pastor....

Dear Friends in Christ,

This Friday, 1 November, is the Solemnity of All Saints, a Holy Day of Obligation, and there will be three Masses: 8:30 am (Sung Mass), 5:00 pm (Said Mass), and 7:00 pm (with incense).

A Holy Day of Obligation is a day on which Catholics are obliged to attend Mass, and unless one is impeded by unavoidable work or serious illness, not to attend Mass on that day is a grave sin.

Every Sunday of the year is a Holy Day of Obligation by divine precept, and several other days of the year are Holy Days of Obligation by ecclesiastical precept — meaning that the Church is exercising the binding part of the power of binding and loosing given to the Apostles by the Lord Jesus.

In the United States, these days of obligation are: 1 January, the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God; 15 August, the Solemnity of the Assumption; 1 November, the Solemnity of All Saints; 8 December, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, and 25 December, the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord Jesus. By decision of the US Bishops, the obligation to attend Mass on three of these five holy days is remitted if the feast falls on a Monday or Saturday, and the three are: 1 January, 15 August, and 1 November.

The Solemnity of the Ascension is also a Holy Day of Obligation, but in the Archdiocese of Baltimore that observance is transferred from 40 days after Easter to the following Sunday, so it is not necessary to count it separately.

All of the above means that in a year when none of the holy days falls on a Sunday, Catholics are expected to attend Mass a minimum of 57 times. Even if you allow an hour of travel time for each Mass, that comes to about 115 hours each year for us to be at Mass or traveling to and from Mass. Studies show that Americans spend an average of 1700 hours each year on their phones (to say nothing of watching TV), and the Church asks us for 115 hours each year to worship the living God in spirit and truth. When we so easily give ourselves to 15 hours on our phones for each hour spent in the celebration of the Holy Eucharist, how is it possible that so many Catholics simply don't bother to accept the invitation of the Lord Jesus to "do this in memory of me"?

Resolve now to come to Mass this Friday to celebrate all the Saints, and make every effort to attend Mass each Sunday and holy day, and help a faltering Catholic return to regular practice of the faith in the same way. And when someone misses Mass on a Sunday or holy day (unless unavoidable work or serious illness is the reason), then please remember that it is necessary to go to Confession before receiving Holy Communion. In all these ways, we give ourselves ever more completely to the love of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Fr Patrick McCain
