From the Desk of Our Pastor...

Christ the King

This Sunday, we celebrate Christ the King, Lord of the Universe, bringing to a glorious end this liturgical year. Over the millenniums, Kings and Kingdoms have come and gone, replaced by various other types of governments, which, in their time, will come and go as they parade across the pages of time.

I have been plowing through Plutarch's Lives of eminent Greek and Roman men, and as interesting as it is, it is wearisome to recount the many wars fought by kingdoms in conflict and the millions of lives lost to the brutality of war. From the old Sumerian city-states, where we trace the beginnings of human culture and Egypt, the Assyrian, Babylonian, Persian, Greek, and Roman empires to the wars of modern nations and governments, all are established by power and destroyed by violence.

With one exception. That is Christ the King. Now, admittedly, Christian kingdoms have fought wars in the name of Christ, but when we look carefully at the circumstances and motives, most were politically conceived and nationalistically driven. Christ's modus operandi is completely different. The great second-century biblical theologian Origen called Jesus autobassileus, which means Jesus Himself is the Kingdom. Where Jesus is, there is the Kingdom. He travels and spreads out into the world across borders hidden in the hearts of His people.

Jesus' Kingdom is not militarized, nor nationalized, nor ethnically defined. It is the greatest and oldest Kingdom on earth. It keeps growing even though its people are flawed and sometimes do harm within and without. Jesus promises that it will take in all the nations and that the gates of hell cannot prevail against it. "Gates" are a defensive idea, which means that Christ the King is always on the offense as it continues to spread and spreads by the power of the Holy Spirit, breaking down Satan's strongholds.

Jesus' Kingdom is an objective, historical reality but rarely makes news. This is because of its spiritual nature. Jesus tells us that we cannot look here or there for it, for the kingdom of God is "within/among you (Luke ...)." When Jesus first said this, He very well meant Himself as "autobassileus," that is, I, the Kingdom, is now among you. But the Greek can also mean "within" you, and as such, is dwelling in the hearts of His people. What can be more exciting than Christ and His Eternal Kingdom living within each of us and coming into full display every Mass we celebrate together?

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul, Pastor

“Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’”

(JOHN 18:36)

Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building “your” kingdom here on earth? We all know we can’t take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions.

Generously share through Stewardship your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.
