From the Desk of Our Pastor...

Setting Aside Our God-Reducers

We mortals, in our arrogance, have, since the fall, a “God reducer” mechanism within our systems. Since we like to be in control and live undisturbed in our spiritually sleepy lives, we really cannot enter into the biblical experiences of those who encountered God. We want to feel affirmed, peaceful, and comfortable with God, so we block out of our prayer life and scriptural readings the true nature of God in His mysterium tremendum, His terrifying immensity beyond what we can comprehend, His wrath against sin, His burning zealous love for us. In our readings we have examples of the holy terror of God from both the Old and New Testaments.

God is entering into a covenant with Abraham with a ceremony common in the day between two parties. What is uncommon about this is that only here, in all the history of humanity, the creator God YHWH is entering into covenant with a man.

The ritual is solemn and gruesome enough; animals are divided in half, and what usually happens is the two parties walk between the pieces reciting the terms of the covenant. Implicit is the curse that falls on the one who breaks the treaty; “may what happened to these animals happen to me if I do so!” Here with Abraham, God sends him into a horror-filled supernatural trance, surrounding him in an unnatural, terrifying darkness, rendering him incapable of walking through with YHWH. This darkness shields him from a direct gaze upon YHWH who passes between the pieces as a furnace burning with uncreated light, thus swearing to Abraham that He will bring about His promise to him, or else become like these animals!

In our Gospel passage we have the Transfiguration of Jesus. This is not any less dramatic. Jesus reveals Himself as Rex Tremendae Majestatis, King of Awful Majesty. The disciples, like Abraham, were “overcome with sleep,” but woke to catch a glimpse of Jesus transfigured with Moses and Elijah. Peter mumbles a suggestion to Jesus before a terrifying cloud overshadowed them, rendering inane his earthly idea of building sanctuaries for Jesus, Moses and Elijah before the mysterium tremendum.

This Lent we need to put aside our “God reducers” and in prayerful contemplation and Spirit-guided imagination, come humbly before Jesus as revealed in these two texts and in many others like them. Only then will we truly worship Jesus with the awe that is due Him, and discover the joy of the fear of God.

Yours in Christ,

Father John Worgul

THE Stewardship CORNER

Grateful Stewardship

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."

Genesis 15:7

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses, and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a Stewards sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

Thank You for Supporting Our Baby Bottle Campaign!

A heartfelt thank you to all SJCC Parishioners who have contributed to our annual Baby Bottle Campaign! Your generosity is helping make a difference in the lives of those in need through the Pregnancy Support Center of Carroll County.

We are in the process of counting the donations and preparing to deliver the check, but we are still missing over 200 baby bottles. If you haven't had the chance to return your bottle yet, we kindly ask that you do so as soon as possible. The empty bottles are an important part of our donation to PSC.
