What's new with Faith Formation 2025-2026?

Daniel T. Rosa & AnnaMarie Link

So often in parish ministry efforts, the focus is on children and youth efforts. We hear it again and again, "YOU are the future of the Church!" Great! But does that make me the past of the Church? The addition of "Family" in Family Faith Formation rewrites that narrative and adds a wide-angle lens to the formation of the future Church, including the present Church.

Here is what we mean here at Saint Joseph Catholic Church.

What is Family Faith Formation (FFF)?

Formation is our word for teaching or catechesis, which is specific education and practice of our Catholic Faith in a parish setting from trained ministry leaders and volunteers so that we can live our faith daily in our homes, our schools, our jobs, and our community. FFF is the formation of the whole family with children ages K-12, WHICH ALSO includes babysitting for children ages 15 months-4 years, to help our parents with young ones, and also to receive formation. At Saint Joseph, we will host 12 Sunday family meals with a family craft between September and May. Of the 12 scheduled meals, 6 will be breakfasts after the 8 AM Mass and 6 will be lunches after the 10:45 AM Mass, alternating breakfast and lunch every two weeks. After the family meal and family craft in the Chaminade Center, the children will break into their grade-specific rooms (15months-4 years, K-2, 3-5, and 6-8) with high school and adult volunteers, and parents will have a guest speaker. In 90 minutes, the whole family will walk away encouraged, refreshed, and excited about being a son or daughter of God, seeking an opportunity to know, love, and serve God in the week to come!

What do I have to attend to complete the year?

All families registered for FFF can attend as many as they can. The only requirement is for families with youth in Sacramental Prep (1st Reconciliation, 1st Eucharist, and/or Confirmation) who must attend 6 out of 12 meals (more details to come in next week's letter - stay tuned!).

Is there anything else going on other than these meals?

Yes! First Friday Adoration is called Pizza and Prayer. The Youth Group for Grades 3-5 is called Rooted. The Youth Group for Grades 6-8 is called EDGE. The Youth Group for Grades 9-12 is called LifeTeen. Family events with the Knights of Columbus are held throughout the year. Parish events are for the whole family. BTW! Did we mention that registration for FFF also gets you and your family tickets to Breakfast with St. Nick on Saturday, December 6, 2025?

This is going to be an incredible year, and we're so happy to be Pilgrims of Hope with you!
