From the Desk of Our Pastor ...

Priority #1 Encounter

Our first mission priority is and must be “encounter with God.” Without an encounter with God, our spiritual and ecclesial life is not alive, nothing is real. Every Pope since Vatican II has stressed encounters as essential and fundamental to our faith. But what is an encounter? How does it happen? How can encounter be in the hearts and on the lips of everyone in our church?

To begin with, we must go to the Scriptures. Every servant of God in both Old and New Testaments, had, what we may say, a life-changing, soul-forming engagement with God. Whether it be Abraham, Moses, the Blessed Mother Mary, or St. Paul, God broke into their little worlds and blew open the gates of their souls to great things. With each of these encounters, there was always a promise, always “something” impossible to achieve on a mere human level, and the soul grasps onto these promises with faith. Wherever there is faith, there is a promise to believe in. Living by these promises elevates the life above the mere natural. These encounters were more real to them than anything else they had ever experienced.

Not all of God’s children have had such radical encounters. One thing for sure, we cannot make them happen; they come by God’s direction for specific purposes. However, by giving us so many examples in Scripture and Church history, we must believe that God can and does encounter His people today in many and various ways, some subtle and some others in not-so-subtle ways. We must be 1) deeply aware of this, and 2) make room by prayer for God to act in our lives.

In fact, the truth is this; God is always pressing in on us, but often we block Him out with our defenses, because we intuitively know that once God becomes real to us by encounter, we will no longer be in charge of our lives. Our lives will certainly take on a whole new and different trajectory into the unknown. Fear keeps us from reaching the greatness we are all called to.

Although some of us will not be knocked over on the road like St. Paul, all are called to encounter Jesus sacramentally. When we faithfully enter Mass with a pure heart, confessed of our sins by the sacrament of reconciliation, we open ourselves to the ultimate encounter of all, Jesus in the Mass. It is possible to go to Mass out of mere routine, unprepared, and defenses up. But if we go prepared, Jesus will surely encounter us, and we will go out and change the world around us.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

We are now using OnlineGiving as our new electronic giving platform. It differs from our previous provider, Faith Direct, in several ways. Keep reading to find out how...

Important & Helpful Hints for setting up your gifts in OnlineGiving:

- Your account is established with just your email address and cell phone number - a password is not necessary
- If giving to multiple funds, you must set up one at a time
- If you choose the frequency of 'weekly' - funds will be taken from your account once a week (52 times per year). If you want to give a weekly amount and have it taken from your account once a month, take your weekly amount x 52 /12 to arrive at your monthly gift. For example, if you want to give $30 per week - $30 x 52 = $1,560 per year ÷ 12 months = $130 per month.
- Special & Second Collections is a separate giving page which can be found by clicking the menu option on the top right-hand side of the page. All of these collections are annual collections. When you click on Recurring, choose "Yearly" for the frequency. Then, PLEASE choose a day in the month that the collection is for. For example: the collection named "Christmas (December)" is a collection in the month of December. PLEASE pick a date in the month of December. If you select Recurring, this gift will be processed on the same day in December every year.

For your safety and the safety of others there are traffic signs throughout the parking lot, please follow the direction of the signs and exercise alert driving as there are many pedestrians including small children moving about especially before and after Mass and during Faith Formation classes.

Steward of the Month August 2025

Mike Johnson

Mike Johnson is the Saint Joseph Steward of the Month for August 2025. Mike and his young family have been parishioners at St. Joseph for 8 years. Inspired by an interest to better understand Catholicism in the context of masculinity, Mike connected with Pedro Silva (former Director of Evangelization) to create the Men's Group, which has been meeting bi-weekly on Monday evenings ever since. Mike stated the group has given him the opportunity to witness the faith journey of peers, share struggles and joys, and embrace mutual accountability to guide each other to heaven. Mike also avails himself to assist with the Confirmation candidates and other young adult ministries, or as he said, "whatever Daniel Rosa needs help with."

Thank you for your willingness to steward your gifts on behalf of God and Saint Joseph Catholic Church. We are blessed to have you among us Mike!
