Mission Priority #3 Welcome

This week we celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. The crucifix is for Catholics the ultimate symbol of our life and faith. Symbols are extremely important to humanity. Symbols are small and simple visuals that represent big and profound things, portals into new worlds, or landscapes, so to speak. Think of all the symbols that surround us, football logos, digital icons, manufacturers' emblems, etc. Those that are readily recognized by the public demonstrate the power behind it. I cannot think of another symbol in the whole world more recognized than the Holy Cross.

God understands symbols. When Israel complained in the desert once too often, He punished them with an infestation of poisonous snakes. He then commanded Moses to make a bronze serpent and lift it up on the pole so everyone could see it. All the people had to do to be healed was to gaze on this symbol and recognize themselves in it. They were snaky people, full of venom; through the symbol they must come to the truth about themselves - "Snakes-R-Us." Jesus picks up on this in the Gospel reading, associating Himself with this terrible symbol. He has taken on our sin, and all we have to do is gaze on the exaltation of God's love for humanity, and acknowledge our helpless state, and we will be saved.

This brings us to our mission priority of "Welcome." What is more welcoming than God's outstretched arms to the whole world? True, it is terrifying at the same time; for it is a dead, bloody corpse doing the welcoming. But behind the symbol is an inexhaustible wealth of meaning, sacrifice, self-gifting love and acceptance. As for us, we are encouraged by Jesus to take up our crosses and follow Him. In doing so, we are to be as welcoming as Jesus to everyone around us.

It is critical here to understand that we must embrace the first two mission priorities of Encounter and Liturgy to be truly welcoming. We are inviting people who live in our parish and beyond to something far more than a human gathering of well intentioned people. True encounter with Jesus gives us supernatural power to live above and beyond normal human existence, and our Mass is supernal, above and beyond anything else in this world. When we experience this fully, we will have little to no difficulty inviting our neighbors to our church. Everyone in our parish, without exception, must be welcomed into the loving arms of Jesus.

NOTE: If you missed Fr. John's homilies on Encounter and Liturgy, please listen to them on our website.

Yours in Christ,

Father John Worgul

The Power of Eucharistic Adoration

If people really recognized the risk involved in breaking God's commandments, they would be very much wariar of committing serious sins, and they would try harder to admonish their brothers and sisters who live in a way that betrays the baptism they have received.
