Mission Priority #5 Accompaniment

The word “accompaniment” is a friendly term; it suggests the walking alongside someone toward a common destination. However, it implies more than mere companionship. Accompaniment as we are using the term includes the ideas of helping, mentoring, and the formation of one another in the truth, the truth being Jesus Christ. We accompany one another on our path to union with Christ. We cannot do this on our own. We need one another.

In our Amos reading, the Prophet excoriates the complacent Israelites who live in luxury and care for nothing beyond their own appetites and entertainment. The scene he paints fits perfectly with our culture today. This is followed up with the parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus. The Rich Man had all the opportunity in the world to help out Lazarus, starving at his gate, but he did not “see” him. To help someone out, to accompany someone in need toward a common destination, that is heaven, one must be able to “see” the person. Selfishness has no destination in mind other than self-gratification, and blinds us to the pressing needs of those around us.

St. Paul eloquently points out for us our destination when he encourages Timothy to “lay hold of Eternal life.” Jesus locates eternal life in His own being when He informs Martha that He is “the resurrection and the life.” We must accompany one another as we walk with Christ, pursuing “righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.”

Here at Saint Joseph Catholic Church we have been working hard to provide formation for everyone at every stage of life. We have adopted a “whole family” approach, working with both parents and children in their sacramental journey from baptism through first communion to confirmation. We have youth programs to further develop our middle school and high school children. We have Bible studies for adults. Our new Bearing the Beams of Love program is geared to accompanying parents by helping them navigate their children through the difficult moral issues our kids are facing. This will be presented to the whole church through my pastoral letters starting in October, and available to all on our Website. This year we will specifically focus on the men of our church with this program in our new Wednesday morning men’s group called Faith Forged. We will meet at 6:00 AM to accommodate those who can get in a short Mass, breakfast and teaching before work.

We are serious about this mission priority of accompaniment; we must “see” one another and together “lay hold of eternal life!”

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Saint Joseph Catholic Church wishes to be as welcoming as possible, however we have an obligation to our parishioners, visitors and staff to maintain the campus in the safest possible way. We understand this might at times be an inconvenience.

FACILITIES & CAMPUS SAFETY @ SJCC

- The following guidelines will apply to accessing areas of the Eldersburg Church Campus:
- All building doors will remain locked at all times with the exception of a scheduled event as indicated by the Facility Calendar.
- All visitors are required to use the video doorbell at the Parish Office entrance when the doors are locked.
- Our Lady of the Pilar Chapel will remain open from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm. From 7:00 pm to 7:00 am the chapel will only be accessible to key-fob and code holders.
- Our Daily Bread casseroles may be dropped off at the Parish Office reception desk when the doors are locked.
- On Mondays and Thursdays between the hours of 8:00 am and 4:00 pm, anyone who currently possesses a key fob or door code MUST OBTAIN PRIOR AUTHORIZATION to enter any campus buildings. Any unauthorized access during this time period will result in forfeiting your access privileges. This procedure is necessary to accommodate a ten-month rental agreement in place for those days of the week.
