From the Desk of Our Pastor ...

Mission Priority #6 Sending

We have now come to the last mission priority, the culmination of all we do to achieve our vision to be the spiritual, moral, and social heart of Eldersburg/Sykesville through encounters with Jesus Christ. The root of our word Mass comes from the Latin mitto, from which we get “sending” words like transmit, submit, missile, and the like. The whole Mass is geared not only to experience heaven on earth, but to bring that heaven to your home and beyond into the world.

Key to this whole purpose is the idea of our homes becoming ecclesia domestica, the Latin for “domestic church.” Starting in next week’s letters and going forward throughout the year, we are going to present you a systematic approach on how to transform our homes into “little churches,” oasis of goodness, beauty, and truth in our neighborhoods. It is all part of our program we have developed here over the years called Bearing the Beams of Love.

If we can enter, by God’s grace, into the notion that “church” is not something we do each Sunday, but is something that extends from the Mass into every aspect of our daily lives, we will indeed be alive with the love needed to win not only our own children, but your children’s friends, their families, your friends, and neighbors to Christ. We at St. Joseph are 100% focused in supporting you with this task with all of our formation endeavors.

The whole idea is not to ask of you something that you are not formed to do. Indeed, what is asked of us by Christ is alien to our human nature. What we need to do, for the love of God, family, and everything we hold dear, is submit ourselves to Jesus by participating in good faith with our formation programs here at St. Joseph, believing that God’s Holy Spirit will transform our lives into something new to us, something alive, something exciting. Then evangelization will come “naturally” because we have become more “supernatural;” it will not be something we “have” to do and feel guilty about when we don’t.

So here are our marching orders: we must re-envision our homes as ecclesia domestica. Your church is here to accompany you every step of the way!

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul
