Thoughts Shared by Our Pastor...

What Does it Look Like to Think, Feel, and Act Like Jesus!

My Dear Family,

Families love to tell stories around the table. What better story to illustrate what we are trying to accomplish than the “Woman Caught in Adultery” story found in John 8:1-11. Everything we want to say going forward in “Bearing the Beams of Love” is captured in this famous drama.

Let’s look at Jesus as He is confronted with this moral dilemma. Jesus’ enemies drag this poor woman before Him to decide her fate. If He allows her stoning, He fulfills the Mosaic law but breaks Roman Law. If He lets her off, He sets Himself against Mosaic law. Instead, He stoops and writes in the sand with His finger. This is the “finger of God” motif, and thereby takes us to God’s finger that wrote the 10 commandments. It is essential to see that Jesus embraces the whole of the ancient Hebrew law because it is His law!

Knowing their hearts, but avoiding their hypocritical duplicity, Jesus places the challenge before them: “He who is without sin cast the first stone.” They all disappear, from the oldest to the youngest. Jesus sees this and asks the woman, “Where are your accusers?” Then He says, “Neither do I condemn you, go and sin no more.”

It is essential to see that Jesus thinks in paradoxes. He embraces the law yet is not condemning. He is most tolerant with the sinner but is intolerant with the sin. His enemies think completely opposite; they are tolerant of sin, especially their own which they ignored until Jesus called them on it, but are intolerant with the sinner.

We see the compassion Jesus has for this woman; His heart goes out to her as it does for all sinners. Jesus feels it all so intensely! And we see the obedience of Christ where He commands the woman to go and sin no more. As Jesus is obedient to His Father, so He expects all of us to be obedient to our common Father.

The absolute beauty of this story captures it all in utter simplicity. Jesus is teaching us all that we can indeed think like Him, possess His own heart toward sinners, and act in obedience like Him. Since we have the same Holy Spirit within us, WE CAN THINK, FEEL, AND ACT LIKE JESUS!

Your in Christ,
Fr. John Worgul

Facilities & Campus Safety @ SJCC

As disciples of Christ, we are called to care for one another. One way we do that is by staying aware of our surroundings and speaking up when something doesn't seem right.

If you observe suspicious activity, report it immediately to an usher, staff member, or security volunteer. Please do not confront anyone directly—your safety and the safety of others come first.

Together, through calm awareness and compassion, we keep our parish a place of peace.

Humble Stewardship

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - Luke 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Pride is the opposite of humility. Remember Stewardship. All that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Our Enhanced Giving Campaign

Here in Eldersburg, a cup of coffee costs about $3.50. If each of us fasted from one cup a week and offered that amount in support of our parish, imagine the difference it could make! Your small sacrifice could help our ministries grow and serve more people. Visit SaintJoseph.cc/Giving to begin or increase your OnlineGiving.

Thank you for your faith-filled support.
