Thoughts Shared by Our Pastor...

Our Church as Family

My Dear Family,

In our previous letters, I invited us all to sit around our table as family. Families tend to look alike that are blood bonded. Likewise, our Saint Joseph Catholic Church family shares a likeness to our brother Jesus, and by Holy Communion; we are united by blood no matter what our race may be. When Jesus was told His mother and brothers were outside waiting, Jesus upended the time-honored blood bonds for belonging by asking, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?” and answering, “Whoever does the will of my Father in Heaven is my brother, and sister, and mother.” The determining factor for our church community membership is obedience to the will of our heavenly Father, modeled on Jesus’ obedience.

Our family is meant to grow and embrace people far beyond the walls of our building, deep into our neighborhoods of Eldersburg and Sykesville. In fact, everyone in the parish belongs in our church community no matter who they are. The questions are, would they feel welcomed? Are we formed enough in the image of Jesus to be able to embrace and serve every kind of people with all sorts of hard issues they deal with?

The answer to the above questions is, “No, we are not now ready.” If we were, it would be happening. Within our family is a whole lot of pain, especially surrounding sexuality as singles and in marriage, addiction, and identity issues. Individually we suffer in silence. Our confusion is so great, and the atmosphere so hostile, we despair of any resolution, and we cannot see God in it. We must break the shackles of silence and talk about it as family first.

Once we think through these hard issues within our church family around our “table” we must learn to engage our children in our own nuclear families. When we begin to think and act like Jesus in our homes and in our church, the more authentic we will become. Only then will evangelization beyond our walls happen naturally and automatically. The world will see our joy and want to be part of it.

It is only by reading, praying, discussing, and mutual encouragement that we can save ourselves and our neighborhoods. We can do this; we have the same Spirit of Jesus who defeated Satan, the destroyer of souls, and the Apostles who changed the world around them.

Yours in Christ,
Father John Worgul

Facilities & Campus Safety @ SJCC

Be alert for emails or texts claiming to be from the parish or clergy asking for money, gift cards, or urgent help. These are scams.

Before you respond to any email, look carefully at the address. Father John does not contact parishioners via a GMAIL address.

Contact the parish office directly with concerns.

Stewardship Spirituality

“Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells within you?” 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16

Remembering that Stewards are “temples of the Holy Spirit”, should make our daily decision making relatively easy. If we truly want to imitate Jesus, then our words and actions should reflect the love, mercy, and forgiveness that flows from His Sacred Heart. Try it for one week. Try to remember that we are temples of the Holy Spirit and see how it affects the way that you live.

Our Enhanced Giving Campaign

Here in Eldersburg, a cup of coffee costs about $3.50. If each of us fasted from one cup a week and offered that amount in support of our parish, imagine the difference it could make! Your small sacrifice could help our ministries grow and serve more people. Visit SaintJoseph.cc/Giving to begin or increase your OnlineGiving.

Thank you for your faith-filled support.
